

Questions & Answers

Question: in the document distributed for Team Manager's it indicates that the handshake at the end of the game is still happening?

Answer: Good question, no it was an over-site that that was left in. We definitely believe in that part of our game something that is truly unique with hockey, but in the current circumstances much more prudent to not do it right now.... Definitely looking forward to the days that it is back.