IRONMAN 70.3

Liuzhou 2020-4-12 Sun.

Travel Package
Also called the Dragon City, Liuzhou is located in the north-central area of the Guangxi Zhuang Autonomous Region and the northern edge of China's subtropical zone. Liuzhou is as much a well-developed, modern city of industry as one of culture, history, and natural beauty. Encircled by green mountains and embraced by the Liu Jiang River, Liuzhou is known as "The World's Best Natural Bonsai".

The night view of Liu River is also breathtaking, no matter when you are on the cruise or walking on the shore. The redbuds flower, spicy and delicious Liuzhou rice noodles, and enthusiastic festival atmosphere all appeal to the visitors. It has been praised by Chinese poets, and named one of the most innovative, beautiful, and leisure-friendly cities in China.
2020 IRONMAN 70.3 Liuzhou will begin with a swim from Jiangbin Park. Spectators will have a unique opportunity to watch this point-to-point swim from the elevated banks of the river and nearby bridge. Athletes will then exit the water to the transition. Transition, IRONMAN Village and finish will be located in Yaobu Ancient Town. From Yaobu Ancient Town, athletes can expect incredible views as they parallel the Liujiang River on this rolling course with smooth, clean road surface. It’s a good chance to check the results of the winter training, as it is the first IRONMAN 70.3 race of 2020 in China.

The 2020 IRONMAN 70.3 Liuzhou will have 25 qualifying slots for the 2020 IRONMAN World Championship and 50 qualifying slots for the 2020 IRONMAN 70.3 World Championship available. Eligible athletes receiving a slot can either accept a slot to the IRONMAN World Championship or a slot to the IRONMAN 70.3 World Championship (but not both).

IRONMAN 70.3 Liuzhou got the 2017 IRONMAN 70.3 Athletes’ Choice Awards of “Overall Bike” No.5 and “Will Attend Next Year” No.6.

--- "I LOVED this bike course! Completely closed, people making that happen, the course, the roads all in excellent shape. I would race again in China in a second."

--- "Being in a new place in the world was an incredible experience. I was doing something I love and having a terrific experience in a stunning location. Well done."
