What to do:

If an active hate crime is occurring, call 911

Otherwise (per SDPD):

- Obtain medical attention if needed. Be sure to keep all medical documentation.
- Write down the hate language.
- Leave all evidence in place. Do not touch, remove or clean up anything.
- Document what happened. Take photographs of the evidence, writing down exactly what was said, particularly any words that indicate biased motivation and other information that may be valuable.
- Get the names, addresses and phone numbers of other victims and witnesses.

Reminder:

- Not all expressions of hate or group bias rise to the level of a hate crime.
- Derogatory words or epithets directed against a person or group, if not accompanied by a threat of harm with the ability to carry it out, are considered protected speech and NOT a hate crime.
- There must be a specific target (victim).
- Name-calling, when not accompanied by assault or threat with the ability to carry out, is NOT a hate crime.
- Racially motivated rallies, leafleting and recruiting are protected by free speech laws and are not hate crimes - unless accompanied by threats with the ability to carry them out or violence occurs
