- Please stick around for your players ice time and be aware of your child’s situation on the ice. At this age, they are learning. They can get frustrated. We will do everything we can do to keep it fun for them, and it usually is – but sometimes they’ll have bad days. We may need to have a kids take a break and if there is no parent to receive them at the gate, we may need a coach to step off the ice to attend to the issue.
