

Parnes Cartwright for NWBA Board of Directors

2021

Cartwright, Parnes
National Wheelchair Basketball Association
4/25/2021

Bio

Parnes Cartwright is a highly respected in wheelchair basketball, specializing in sport business, coaching, entertainment, and community service. His expertise has created healthy and wealthy boards, successful programs, winning teams, and professional attitudes everywhere he has been, and he has been a lot of places within and outside of the United States.

Having over 25 years of leadership experience in basketball, Parnes has led boards to fiduciary success, modernization, optimal service potential, and compliance. As Directors Guild of America Assistant Directors Committee East Coast member, Parnes worked with some of the most high-profiled entertainment industry giants including Michael Jackson, Sidney Lumet, Jonathan Demme, Michelle Pfeiffer, Whoopi Goldberg, Richard Gere, Denzel Washington, Martin Scorsese, and Jack Nicholson. As a National Wheelchair Basketball Association Adult Division Committee member, Parnes is responsible for creating Division II and creating the Adult Division Guidelines living document. He is the Creative Producer of the award-winning movie, "The Rebound."

Parnes has a Bachelor of Fine Arts Degree from the University of Miami and a Master's Degree in Sport Management from Barry University. Parnes is also a United States Department of the State Sports Envoy.

As a NWBA Board member, Parnes plans to bring his expertise to work toward a self-sustainable organization building a pathway for more opportunities for wheelchair basketball in interscholastic sport, higher education, professional wheelchair basketball in the United States and growing the sport through inclusion. Parnes is a proven asset to the organization and would be a great addition to the NWBA Board of Directors.
