MANITOBA AAA MIDGET HOCKEY LEAGUE 2018-19 ALL STARS

Three members of the Eastman Selects have been selected to the 2018-19 Manitoba AAA Midget Hockey League all-star team.

Defencemen Matthew Boonstra was named to the first all-star team and goaltender Danton Belluk and forward Josh Beauchemin were selected to the second all-star team.

Brandon Wheat Kings had two players — goaltender Dawson Green and the lone repeat from last year's all star team Nolan Ritchie — voted to the first all-star team. They are joined on the team by defenceman Mathew Shatsky of Winnipeg Wild and forwards Conner Roulette of Winnipeg Thrashers and Yellowhead Chiefs' Jake Poole.

The second all-star team features a pair of Southwest Cougars — defenceman Cory King and forward Callum Fortin. Central Plains defencemen Kian Calder and forward Reese Belton of Winnipeg Wild round out the second all-star team.

The Manitoba AAA Midget Hockey League all-stars are selected by a vote of each of the league coaches.
