Player Weight	Player Weight Verification	Player Weight Management Anytime throughout the season, if a coach has concerns that a player is over the running weight or the single striper weight, which could be a safety concern, they must file a complaint with their league director. Each league's board of directors shall review the complaint and see if it warrants concern. If there is a concern, the league can issue a re-weigh complaint to the league for which the kid in question plays. This weigh shall be done before the next game is played and witnessed by a league official from both leagues involved (in-person is recommended; however, Facetime is sufficient). Players are not required to be weighed in wearing your equipment. If a player is found to be over the weight limit during a complaint check anytime throughout the season, that player will be placed into the single or double striper category for the remainder of the year. Additionally, the Head Coach may be subject to a suspension and/or permanently banned from the league if deemed necessary by the league's Board of Directors.
	Player Weight Eligibility	Any player under the pre-determined league running weight as of their league weigh-in day can advance the ball from any position on the field and has no restrictions on playing positions. A player within 20 pounds of the eligible league running weight will be identified as having a single black stripe on their helmet, which must be visible to game-day officials. They can play the Offensive or Defensive line and Tight End or Linebacker positions. A player 20 pounds or over the eligible league running weight will be identified as having a double black stripe on their helmet. Which must be visible to game-day officials. They are eligible to play the Offensive or Defensive line from a 3 or 4-point stance.
	Helmet Striping Requirements	Any player exceeding the ball-carrying weight at the official weigh-in shall have their helmets marked with a four-inch-long tape stripe on the front and back of the helmet. The tape shall be of a distinctive contrasting color of the helmet to be readily identifiable by the game official and to distinguish them as ineligible ball carriers.
Helmet Markings	Require Marking	Eligible Positions
