Coaching Bio's

Danny Clarke

Danny has been at the club since 2010 and is a well-traveled coach delivering in India, South Africa, Sweden, Nigeria, Australia, Italy, Columbia and USA.

Danny has also spent time working at Manchester United and Everton FC before being offered the lead coach on the club's international football program.

After a very successful 2012 Danny was recognized for his achievements by gaining the opportunity to assist first team head coach, Dougie Freedman in 2013. Danny was made lead coach of BWFC in 2015. As a player Danny played in the FA youth cup and the FA cup. He currently holds a UEFA B license, and is on his way to receiving his UEFA "A" license.

Sam Redshaw

Sam is currently coaching at BWFC academy. On a weekly basis, he is able to coach very talented player's new skills and tactics which can help them enhance in their overall game. He has coached a number of touring teams from different countries, these include, Australia, America, Wales, Scotland, Ireland, Canada, Dubai and Qatar. This has helped him adapt and progress as a coach working with so many different nationalities. He has also had the opportunity to travel to Columbia and America to coach a wide range of ages and abilities and provide an opportunity for talented players to join the 'The Elite Pro Club Experience' (EPCE).

He is currently completing the UEFA B license which has developed his coaching ability and developed his ability to analyze matches and how to adapt a session to solve a match day problem. On a day to day basis, he works with Bolton Wanderers Community Trust. His job is to look after all development squads and provide a bridge between development squads to the academy this helps with evaluating overall players performances to make sure they are ready for academy level football.
